PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

I am Eliezer Antonio Prieto Pantoja. I graduated from IPVCE Vladimir Ilich Lenin, studied three years of Nuclear Engineering at InSTEC, and completed one year of humanistic studies at the Padre Félix Varela Institute. My path combines analysis, discipline and human connection. I moved from physics and engineering into international tourism and entrepreneurship while keeping leadership, resilience and a results-driven mindset.

EXPERIENCE

Professional Tour Guide
Civitatis · GuruWalk

Ongoing experience

Design and delivery of tours in Spanish, English and Portuguese for international travelers. Specialized in cultural experiences, historical itineraries, storytelling and adapting each experience to the group.

Founder & CEO
Hasta Tu Puerta

Package delivery startup

Creation, operation and growth of a logistics brand with an active social media presence. Leadership in operations, service, promotion, organization and digital marketing.

Demanding technical training
Nuclear Engineering

3 years of study

Solid foundation in physics, calculus, thermodynamics, modeling and technical problem solving in complex environments.

FEATURED TOURS

Bike Tour of Havana
Urban and cultural experience for international travelers.

Cuban Revolution
Historical narrative with a human and political perspective.

Complete Tour
Full Havana route for different visitor profiles.

Night Bar Tour
Social and local experience with close attention to detail.

Colonial · Casa Blanca
Heritage routes with cultural context.

Contrasts · Yoruba
Thematic, identity-based and multicultural itineraries.

I am looking for opportunities where I can contribute judgment, communication, energy and real results in tourism, operations, logistics, technical projects and high-level customer service. My differentiator is the way I combine science, humanities, service and life experience to move naturally between technical and human contexts.
